

Development
Services

SUBMITTAL REQUIREMENTS NOTICE

The Land Development Manual Project Submittal Requirements have been updated with a January 2017 effective date. Following is a summary of the changes:

Section 1 - No substantive changes

Sections 2 and 2A

1. Revised information requested on Title Sheet
2. Updates to Geotechnical Study Requirements – A geotechnical investigation report may be required to address Storm Water Standards.
3. Introduced new submittal requirements for Plumbing Permits for Private Utilities

Section 3

1. Updates to Geotechnical Study Requirements – A geotechnical investigation report may be required to address Storm Water Standards.

Section 4

1. Climate Action Plan (CAP) Consistency Checklist is required for all discretionary applications.
2. Updates to Geotechnical Study Requirements – A geotechnical investigation report may be required to address Storm Water Standards.

Section 5

1. Updates to Geotechnical Study Requirements – A geotechnical investigation report may be required to address Storm Water Standards.
2. The requirement for a Building Conditions Report for all mapping actions for condominium conversions has been replaced by a Condominium Conversions Development Regulations Affidavit (DS-6001).

Section 6 - No substantive changes